It is unknown when the period of preparation for Christmas that is now called Advent first began – it was certainly in existence from about 480 – and the novelty introduced by the Council of Tours of 567 was to order monks to fast every day in the month of December until Christmas;^[9] Some have even said it goes back to the time of the Twelve Apostles or that it was founded by Saint Peter himself.^[10] This has led to the conclusion that it is "impossible to claim with confidence a credible explanation of the origin of Advent".^[11]

Associated with Advent was a period of fasting, known also as the Nativity Fast or the Fast of December
